Miniature Cyclone Proves Large Enough

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

CALGARY, May 25.—A miniature cyclone swept through the Town of Okotoks, 28 miles south of Calgary, Saturday afternoon. A small automobile, with two passengers, was lifted high in the air and carried for 150 feet before making a nose dive into the earth. One of the men was seriously hurt when he was pinned under the car, and the other escaped with slight bruises. The windows of the Baptist Church were blown out, but no other known damage resulted.

NOT IN LOWE & McKAY LIST.
