Date : Wednesday, May 27, 1903

Time : “afternoon”

Location : Blackwell, Lambton County

F-Rating : N/A Likely F2+

Track Length **:

Max Width **:

Direction : N/A° ~SW-NE motion

Shape : “cyclone” “funnel” spray ring seen at base of funnel over Lake Huron

Injuries **:

Deaths **:

Damage Cost : ~$1,000 [~$26,000 (2017)] as a barn and outbuildings were completely destroyed. Mature trees de-limbed and uprooted, young trees ripped out of the ground. Tornado “destroyed everything in its path.”

Notes : Strong tornado witnessed east of Sarnia in the Blackwell area and later moved northeast over Lake Huron as a tornadic waterspout.

Photos/Videos **: