FERGUS NEWS RECORD. THURSDAY JULY 23RD. 1874.

STORM DATE. THURSDAY JULY 16TH. 1874.

HARRISTON:- A very heavy gale of wind passed over this section on Thursday of last week, doing considerable damage. ALEX. WILKINSON, of the 6TH. CONCESSION MINTO, had his barn partly unroofed, and some of his fruit trees almost blown out by the root besides having his fence levelled. DAVID SMITH, of the same concession, had the roof blown clean off his barn. JOHN HORROCKS, of the same neighborhood, was served inlike manner. JAMES RUSSELL of ELORA ROAD, had most of his fences blown down. Few farmers, escaped damage done to their property. The wind did not seem to be confined to roofs and fences, but found its way into the forest, and numbers of the farmers had their spare bush considerably damaged. THOMAS McLELLON had about six acres of fine bush very badly damaged by having the trees blown out of the ground. The hail, which were very abundant for a while, does not seem to have done much damage.
