WALLACETOWN, ONTARIO.

THE DAILY GLOBE, TORONTO. TUESDAY JULY 15TH. 1873.

STORM DATE. 4A.M., MON. JULY 14TH. 1873.

STORM, DAMAGE TO PROPERTY ONE BOY KILED.

WALLACETOWN, JULY 14TH. Great damage was done in this vicinity by a furious wind and rain storm, which passed over this village at four o' clock this morning. The large drill-shed was considerably shattered and moved. One of the large windows was blown some distance from the building. The telegraph wire between this place and TYRCONNEL is broken in several places by trees falling across the road. All along the roads the fences are blown down, and the wheat and other crops are flattened to the ground. The storm lasted for about half an hour.

LATER. 11.30A.M. During the storm of Monday morning the house of MR. NEIL McARTHUR, DUNWICH, was struck by lightning completely shattering the whole end of the house, and not leaving one brick of chimney remaining in its place. A little boy sitting by was killed instantly. He was about seven years old.
