ORANGEVILLE SUN. THURSDAY MAY 29TH. 1862.

STORM DATE. WEDNESDAY MAY ~~28TH~~ 21st? 1862.

BRIDGE CARRIED AWAY BY STORM.

The storm of Wednesday afternoon appears to have been more violent along the GRAND RIVER than it was here, for we learn that it has done a great deal of damage. The large bridge which spans the river at YORK about 600 feet in length, built 4 years ago, and costing over $9,000, was lifted by the wind from the piers and thrown into the river. It has been rendered completely useless, and will prove a serious loss to the county.

In an adjoining lumber yard, the boards were lifted from their places and whirled into the air. The violence of the storm is represented to have been fearful.

DAILY GLOBE,TORONTO.SATURDAY MAY 24TH.1862.

STORM DATE. May 21 ? 1862

SEVERE STORM AT PORT DOVER. (FROM THE NORFOLK REFORMER,SIMCOE.)

The storm of yesterday was very severe on property in PORT DOVER. A house near the SWING BRIDGE, occupied by MR.P.EDSALL, was blown down, burying the inmates in the ruins.Fortunately,no one was seriously hurt. A small building on the west side of MAIN STREET was blown to pieces, and the roof carried across the street.The schooner REBECCA FOSTER broke her moorings and collided with the KATE KELLY, carrying away the KATE'S fore-rigging,chains and six stanchions,and staving a hole in her side. The FOSTER lost her jib-boom,but was not otherwise much injured.Chimneys were blown over from many houses.Horses standing upon the wharf were lifted from their feet, and one or two runaways occurred. NORFOLK REFORMER.

THE STORM OF WEDNESDAY. STORM DATE.WED.MAY 21TH.1862.

The destruction of the YORK BRIDGE was not the only damage done by the storm of Wednesday last as several barns were blown down in different parts of the County,and an inumerable lot of fences were levelled to the ground.The top of the front gable of the new brick CHAPEL,nearly opposite YORK,built chiefly by THOMAS MARTINDALE ESQ., was blown in several inches,but did not fall,whilst a shed alongside was totally destroyed.A new stable and driving shed just being enclosed by MR.HILL,in this village,was levelled to the ground,and timbers were badly broken.
