GUELPH ADVERTISER

& COUNTY OF WATERLOO ADVERTISER

THUR AUG 7TH 1851 From our agent. A VIOLENT HAILSTORM.

On Saturday morning last the neighbourhood of HECKS CORNERS a short distance below PRESCOTT, was visited with a heavy rain followed by one of the most severe storms he ever witnessed. The wind accompanying the hail blew so fiercely that it uprooted some of the largest Elm trees of the woods, carried the roofs off houses and barns, levelled the fences with the ground, left several of the Stores and Taverns minus their signboards and did a great deal of injury to the crops. ____ NORTH AMERICAN
