THE CAYUGA SACHEM.FRIDAY AUGUST 11TH.1854.

FROM THE INDEPENDENT.

STORM DATE.EVENING,TUESDAY AUGUST 8TH.1854.

THUNDERSTORM IN DUNNVILLE.

On Tuesday evening a sudden gust of wind passed over this place doing considerable damage,Several buildings were unroofed,and fences and trees were prostrated in every direction.The new three storey brick building recently erected by MR.WILLIAM LEANY,on CANAL STREET,was completely demolished,and in falling,crushed the adjoining frame building belonging to J.R.BROWN,and occupied by L.J.WEATHERBY as a furniture room,by C.LEWIS,DRUGGIST,and by MELLON and BISSELL for books and stationery.The stock of MR.WEATHERBY and MR.LEWIS was nearly all destroyed;but messrs MELLON and BISSELL saved their goods in a damaged state.Four persons were in BROWN'S building at the time —— Messrs LEWIS and brother, MR.FORBES,and MR.JAMES FERGUSON,and they were all more or less injured. MR.FERGUSON,was buried in the ruins nearly an hour;and one of his legs is broken;and he is so very much bruised on his head and body that his recovery is now considered very doubtful.

The same evening a chimney was blown from the home of MR.ARMOUR.
