THE GLOBE, TORONTO. MON JULY 20, 1942. p7.
STORM DATE! JULY 11 and 12, 1942

STORM CAUSES THREE DEATHS

Wind, Rain and Hail Sweep Across Manitoba

Winnipeg, July 19 (CP).—A windstorm accompanied by rain and hail which swept across Manitoba July 11 and early July 12, was responsible for the death of three persons in various parts of the Province.

Mrs. Sandy Bruce, aged 74, resident of the Erikadale farm district, about ninety miles northwest of here, was found dead July 14, one and one-half miles from her home. She had been missing since July 11. It is thought that she sought shelter from the storm in the bushes, but died from exposure.

James Germell, aged 16, of Russell, Man., 225 miles west of here, was instantly killed by lightning the afternoon of July 11, when working in the field of his father's farm

Gunner Alfred Pierrway of Quesnel, B.C., was killed by lightning in the early hours of July 12, near the 103rd Basic Training Centre in Fort Garry, suburb of Winnipeg.

The storm damaged crops, broke trees, destroyed small buildings and disrupted light and telephone communications.

The wind here reached an average velocity of about fifty-five miles an hour.
