STORM DATE.THURS.JULY 10TH.1873.

A BRANTFORD paper says: Last Thursday,10th.inst.,a whirlwind passed through the woods in TUSCARORA TOWNSHIP.This somewhat strange phenomenon passed from the southwest in a northeasterly direction,clearing a pathway in its course of some hundred yards in width.Every obstacle to its progress had to yield,trees,barns,haystacks,being torn up and hurled aside.Fortunately this rapidly moving cloud passed over a very thinly settled country.So far we are only informed of harm coming to two dwellings The roof of MOSES HERON'S house was lifted from its fixtures as also that of a MRS.WILSON.No lives are reported lost.
