FERGUS, NEWS RECORD. FRIDAY JUNE 14TH 1867.

STORM DATE. FRIDAY JUNE 7TH.

TERRIFIC STORM.

On the afternoon of Friday last a terrific rain and hail storm burst over a part of GARAFRAXA causing in its course immense destruction of property. The greatest violence of the storm occurred in the neighborhood of DOUGLAS, and here fences were levelled and trees snapped like pipe stems by the terrific force of the wind. The ground was covered with hail and the rain poured down in torrents, resembling more, we are told, a WATERSPOUT than an ordainary shower. So violent was it that in a few minutes small creeks were converted into rushing torrents, sweeping before them fences, culverts and even trees. The soil was in many cases washed off, and great ruts torn in fields to the depth of four feet. In the course of an hour the IRVINE and GRAND rivers rose about four feet, fully up to the spring flood mark. Tubs, fleeces of wool, sheep,pigs, and a horse, are said to have been carried down the stream. Dr. LIGHTBODY, of DOUGLAS, in attempting to cross a creek, was carried down by the current and narrowly escaped being swept into the river. The damage to crops, etc, has been immense— thousands of dollars at least.The direction of the storm was southerly and we learn that great loss was occasioned by it in ERAMOSA and in the neighborhood of GEORGETOWN.
