QUEBEC. TORNADO? 1 KILLED

Storm Loss In Quebec $250,000

Quebec, Aug. 4 (CP).—Eastern Quebec, scorched under a blistering sun, relaxed tonight after toiling all day to repair th cravages of one of the worst storms the Province ever has seen.

A violent storm that broke suddenly last night over an area of nearly 1,000 square miles left in its wake a trail of death and damage to homes and property estimated at $250,000.

Three deaths were reported. Alfred Caron, 49, of St. Pierre de Montmagny, about thirty-five miles east of here on the south shore of the St. Lawrence, was killed when lightning struck the carriage in which he and his 13-year-old niece were driving. The horse was killed, the carriage wrecked, and the girl, Cecile Letourneau, burned seriously.

At St. Jean Daschaillons, about forty miles west of Quebec on the south shore, Antonio Dery, 50, was killed when his farm home was blown down.

lantic to Lake Superior district. Continuation of Thursday's comparatively moderate temperatures was expected in Western Canada.

Storm's Fury Unprecedented.

The storm in Quebec Province was declared to be one of the worst the Province has ever seen. Alfred Caron, 49, was killed 35 miles east of Quebec City when lightning struck the carriage in which he and his 13-year-old niece, Cecile Letourneau, were riding. The girl was burned seriously and the horse was killed.
