THE GLOBE, TORONTO. TUESDAY SEPTEMBER 8TH. 1857.

STORM DATE. AFTERNOON, SAT. SEPT. 5TH. 1857.

EFFECTS OF THE LATE STORM.

During the storm of Saturday afternoon, a frame house on the KINGSTON ROAD, the property of MR. BIRD, butcher, was blown down by the wind, the different portions of the building being scattered about, rendering it a complete wreck. As the house had only just been erected, and was barely finished, it was uninhabited. MR. BIRD is a loser to the extent of £80.

Some of the neighbouring townships suffered severely; trees were broken down, bridges swept away, and rivulets swollen to rivers.
