STORM DATE. JUNE 1913.

CYCLONE DEVASTATES FARMS IN EAST ELGIN,

ORCHARDS RUINED, BUILDINGS DAMAGED, BARN STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

(Special Despatch to The Globe)

ST. THOMAS, JUNE 22. A disastrous cyclone passed over the vicinity of the village, in ELGIN COUNTY, destroying everything in its 20-rod-wide path for about a mile and a quarter. The farms of JAMES HUTCHINSON, SCRENUS PRATT, JOHN BUNDY, and WILLIAM CHUTE, were passed over, orchards ruined, and MR. BUNDY'S house partly wrecked, while at the home of MRS. EDISON, in the village, a tree was blown over on to the kitchen which was demolished. No one was injured. About the same time the barn of JOHN MAHAID, BAYHAM, was struck by lightning and destroyed by fire.
