FERGUS NEWS RECORD. THURSDAY AUGUST 15TH. 1878.

STORM DATE. AUGUST 9TH. 1878.

ORILLIA, AUG. 9TH. A terrible thunderstorm, accompanied by a very heavy fall of rain and hail, visited this locality between 2 and 3a.m. For half an hour or more before the storm flash after flash of lightning with scarcely more than a perceptible interval illuminated the sky. During the half hour the storm raged, scattering loose material of every description, tearing down trees in all quarters of the town, including a number of fine maples along the streets, damaging gardens and terrifying all whose nerves were not of the stoutest. The bell tower of the HIGH SCHOOL was blown completely off, and several other buildings slightly damaged. In some localities in the surrounding country the storm was even more severe. A report just received from the villageof WARMINSTER, 7 miles from this place, says: "A tornado passed close to this place about 2 o'clock this morning, and the following damage was done within two miles of the village:— MR. MOFFAT, roof of dwelling house blown off; MR. MYERS, barn blown down; MR. FARRALL, barn blown down; J. CONNORS, barn blown down; ROBERT ROBINS, roof blown off dwelling house and barn; MR. BURNS, roof blown off barn; MR. HICKEY, barn partially unroofed; MR. O'BRIEN, barn blown down; JOSEPH BALL, barn and kitchen blown down and pump blown out of well; JOHN BALL, barn unroofed; MR. PRICE, barn unroofed; MRS. BARR, barn and outbuildings unroofed. Trees and fences blown down in all directions. Reports are coming in all the time of further damage. No lives were lost. Great damage to the crops must be the result.

A thunderstorm hit ARTHUR TOWNSHIP ~~xx~~ early Tuesday morning the 6TH. Many lightning strikes.
