DRAYTON ADVOCATE. THURSDAY AUGUST 16TH. 1928.

STORM DATE. FRIDAY AUGUST 10TH. 1928.

During the terrific rain and windstorm that visited this section last Friday afternoon considerable damage was done to some crops but not so much as was at first reported. An odd field of grain in MARY-BOROUGH was flattened and will be difficult to harvest but will not be completely lost. A section of the roof of MR. ISAAC WALTON'S barn on the 12TH. CONCESSION of MARYBOROUGH was blown off, while several windows were broken in MR. ARCHIE DICKSON'S house. MISS McKAY'S orchard across the road from MR. WALTON'S farm, was also badly hit by the storm, a couple of dozen fine trees being uprooted.

ROTHSAY. A bad storm visited this vicinity last Friday evening about 5p.m. A terrific wind was accompanied by thunder and lightning, rain and hail falling in torrents. The wind and hail did considerable damage, unroofing buildings and felling trees, and fields of grain and corn were flattened as if cut by the binder.

BRUCE MAN IS KILLED BY LIGHTNING BOLT; HELPER PARALYZED

Crops in Paisley District Destroyed by Heavy Hail

(Special Despatch to The Globe)

Cargill, Aug. 10.—Conrad Krohn, a Brant farmer, 35 years of age, married, was instantly killed when struck by lightning while hauling in wheat on his farm on the eleventh concession of that township four miles northeast of Cargill about 5.30 o'clock this afternoon.

Edward Rody, a brother-in-law of the victim, who was assisting the latter in harvesting operations, was badly injured by the bolt, one arm being completely paralized. Krohn's entire clothing and shoes were torn off by the lightning and his body was burned badly.

Horse Also Killed

The load of grain and wagon on which the victim was standing was burned and one of the horses killed by the lightning.

Krohn was building the load with Rody was standing in the ground a few feet from the wagon, pitching up the sheaves, when the storm broke. They had almost finished the field and were about to proceed to the barn when the fatal flash came.

Krohn leaves a wife and family of two children, a girl seven years of age and a boy five, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Krohn of Brant, one brother, Paul of Chesley, and one sister, Mrs. Rody of Brant.

Terrible Hail Storm.

Paisley, Aug. 10.—This town and district was visited this afternoon by the worst hail storm in many years. Scores of windows were broken in the town and vicinity while grain crops were completely destroyed in the surrounding county. The storm lasted about half an hour and was accompanied by severe lightning and a gale of considerable intensity.

Strong Wind at Walkerton.

Walkerton, Aug. 10.—A severe electrical storm passed over Walkerton this afternoon, accompanied by a strong gale and followed by a heavy downpour of rain. There was no damage reported other than trees uprooted and branches broken in orchards and on trees along the highways leading to the town.
