TWISTER, NEAR ORILLIA, ONTARIO.

DAILY PACKET AND TIMES ORILLIA, ONT., MONDAY JUNE 29TH. 1959.

STORM DATE. EARLY P.M., SAT. JUNE 27TH. 1959.

LIGHTNING, TWISTER LASH AREA. BOLT BLOWS HOLE IN "Y" CAMP CABIN,

BOATMAN KILLED BY LIGHTNING.

HORSES, PIGS UNINJURED AS BABY TWISTER LEVELS BARN.

ORILLIA, (Staff) A sudden, violent twister which struck along a narrow front at the height of the year's worst thunderstorm on Saturday afternoon levelled at least one barn, ripped up trees and felled a silo.

The storm struck in the early afternoon at the farm of ERNEST AYERS, R.R.3, and blew down his barn in an instant, leaving only the wall at one end standing. Horses and pigs in the barn at the time were protected by the cement foundation wall and escaped injury.

The violent wind then uprooted a half-a-dozen trees and blew over a silo on a nearby farm.

MR. AYERS said that pieces of the metal roof of his barn were blown almost a half-mile distant. No estimate of damage has been made as yet.

ORILLIA received 3.02 inches of rain during Sat. and Sun.

A man killed by lightning, in a boat, at HONEY HARBOR on Sat. P.M.

Lightning struck a cabin at the YMCA BREEZY POINT CAMP on the east shore of LAKE COUCHICHING and stopped a clock at 12:20 E.S.T.
