THE BRITISH WHIG and GENERAL ADVERTISER for CANADA WEST.

KINGSTON CANADA, SATURDAY MORNING AUGUST 14TH. 1847.

STORM DATE. FRIDAY AUGUST 6TH. 1847.

On Friday afternoon last, a few miles north on YONGE STREET, there was a violent hurricane, which drove trees, fences, etc., before it, in all directions. The orchards and gardens were damaged, and the corn in the fields levelled with the ground. The storm was confined within a very narrow circumference. In the city there was, about the same time, a slight thunder shower but no storm whatever to compare with that which was experienced a few miles to the north of us. PATRIOT
