THE DRAYTON ADVOCATE. THURS AUG. 1 1935.

STORM DATE:

In a brief, but violent wind-storm, which passed over a section of Arthur Township, Mr. Archie Reid had the misfortune to have a barn blown over and completely wrecked. Mr. Reid had moved the barn from the Casey farm he recently purchased, to his former property and was having it jacked up to form an addition to his old barn. The work was almost completed when it was caught in the wind and whirled to the ground. Fortunately none of the men at work at the time were injured.
